Trustees Give Top Brass Pay Raises

Voicing a definite vote of confidence in the administration, elementary school district trustees Wednesday night unanimously approved salary hikes for the superintendent and his chief assistant.

Agreement was reached in a closed personnel meeting, attended by four members of the board.

They voted to raise Supt. H. Z. Weibel's 1957-58 salary from $12,000 to $14,000, and Asst. Supt. David Shapiro's from $10,500 to $12,000. Pay will be retroactive to July 1 this year.

Next Week

Official resolution for the pay hikes will be passed in next Wednesday evening's regular JESD meeting.

Action on the salaries of the two top men was delayed pending determination of a new assistant superintendent and director of instruction.

After screening some 15 candidates, the board Wednesday appointed Dr. Vinton S. Stratton, 42, of San Jose, to fill the post. His salary, under a one-year contract, will amount to $12,000 a year, same as Shapiro's.

Weibel's contract with the district expires next June. Trustees this December will determine if he is to be rehired.

Shapiro's two-year contract also expires in June next year.

Stanford Man

Dr. Stratton, who received his masters and doctorate in education at Stanford, the past 10 years has served as a supervising principal in curriculum development with the San Jose schools.

The newcomer has taught at Stanford summer sessions and was employed by San Jose State College on a part-time basis in 1956, supervising student teachers training in elementary education.

Stratton attended University of California for two years, and received his A.B. degree in education at College of Pacific in 1941.

Well Qualified

His teaching credentials include general elementary, general secondary, elementary administrative and secondary administrative.

Stratton was an elementary teacher in Almaden, Tracy and San Jose. During World War II, he was an athletic instructor in the U. S. Navy.

The new superintendent is married and has two children, both in high school.

STRANGER in paradise? No, just Henry "Beartracks" Mack Jr., Daly City's legendary hobo, checking out of his favorite hotel, the local clink. Beartracks was booked—the 110th time—for being fried here last week. The judge gave him another 60 days in county jail. Mack likes it there, especially the chow. The outdoorsman has been in and out of the county cooler since 1938—usually for emptying too many bottles and sleeping under the stars. And it always happens here.

HAL WILLIS, local cleaner, got taken there recently in the Cub Scout Pack 244 paper drive.

Hal, member of the Daly City Lions, sponsors of the Cub unit, was asked to collect at least his own weight in paper, as were all other Lions. A stiff fine faced those who failed to make the quota.

Hal figured he'd play it safe, offered the Cubs two cents a pound for all the paper they'd bring him, so he could easily make his weight quota.

Several tons later and some $43 poorer, the cleaner discovered he'd created a "Frankenstein monster."

So the Cubs got $43 for selling the paper to Willis at two cents a pound. Willis, of course turned over his collection to the [illegible]; the Cubs sold it again to the junk man for the going rate of a half-cent a pound.

If those Cubs don't get their merit badges for business en-

ARRESTED 110 TIMES

Old Mr. 'Beartracks' Hits Calabooze Again

Like the fog, "Beartracks" continues to drift in and out of town with monotonous regularity.

Early Wednesday morning while all but the men in blue slept, Henry Mack Jr., the man with the legendary reputation, looked for his usual place to flop—a used car lot.

Minutes later, he was en route to the Daly City clink for the 110th time since 1938. Old Beartracks must be shooting for a national record.

Really, the 39-year-old gent is harmless. His only weaknesses are alcohol and work. He loves the former, despises the latter.

Beartracks knows every brick in the county jail. He's been there so often they call him the chairman of the joint's board of trustees.

Hank "does his time' cheerfully, appreciating the three square meals and a comfortable bed. On the outside, he "exists' on a jug and little else. He's usually along the railroad tracks near Junipero Serra or light-footing it into a car lot for a trip to slumberland.

Beartracks' record at headquarters is as long as a piece of rope. Nothing more serious than being on a toot. The police never have any trouble bringing him in. He likes the "accomodations" at county jail.

Sympathetic officers and residents have tried to help him. Ditto Judge Thomas L. Bocci, who rarely gets through his busy agenda without encountering the Daly City traveler.

Hizzoner usually asks the scoop on county jail conditions from the Mack man. And Beartracks knows the place better than the men in charge.

The gent doesn't know the meaning of reform. The time in between trips to the cooler affords him sufficient variety. A job? Well, he isn't too interested. Work is one word missing from his caloboozed vocabulary.

His police pals once got him a job, hoping Beartracks would settle down and live the right way. After two hours, Henry took off for the boondocks.

Beartracks will be back on the police blotter. Same old story. Same old trip. Same old return. And a few more chuckles for the men who watch him—like the prodigal son.

Henry likes Daly City. Must be the climate. Or the hospitality.

JESD Goes To State On School Site Feud

Determined to "let the state decide" and shocked by San Francisco's "unneighborly attitude," Jefferson Elementary trustees this week stood pat on their intention to get the full 10 acres for the new General Pershing school site.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel, aide David Shapiro and trustee Doris Wimberly will travel to Sacramento this Friday to give state education officials "all the facts" on the controversy.

S. F. Hostility

San Francisco board of education, an appointive group with power independent of the state, pledged an all-out fight Tuesday night to nullify JESD's bid for some 3 acres of San Francisco property.

Despite opposition from James Tormey, San Mateo County superintendent of schools, Dr. Harold Spears, SF board of education superintendent, has reiterated his intent to oppose the Daly City move.

Spears said Tuesday that the state probably would go along with a seven acre site in Daly City, "and besides, Daly City has plenty of land."

Asst. Supt. David Shapiro advised trustees Wednesday that the state is being pressured by San Francisco's version of the controversy.

Political Football

"The allocations board has authorized funds for the 10-acre site," Shapiro reminded." They have approved the project, so we have nothing to worry about unless the matter becomes a political football because of the San Francisco stand."

Weibel suggested the board take a definite stand on the matter "to correct any mis-

Hint Delay On Opening Of W'moor

Westmoor High school opening, scheduled for September 10, may face a delay up to two weeks, Jefferson High School district trustees learned Monday.

Glenn South, Westmoor principal, said it appeared impossible that contractor Theo. G. Meyer would be able to deliver the completed gymnasium by September 3 in time to prepare it for use.

Superintendent Edward Morgan attributed major construction delays to sub-contractors.

Trustee Don Miller posed the question, "Is it possible we may have to delay the opening of school?" South said he would "have to give that some thought.'

Some 1200 students would be affected by the delay.

Should the opening of school be postponed, the classroom time would have to be made up by cutting short Christmas and Easter vacations.

While classrooms are scheduled to be completed this week, it does not appear that the shop, music room, cafeteria and gymnasium can be readied for the September 10 opening.

Morgan said that the decision on whether or not to delay opening of school would be made at the August 26 board meeting, after Meyer's progress has been checked in the interim.

Chairman Elio Fontana urged, however, that, "We should push Meyer, not talk about delaying the opening."

Meanwhile, furniture and other equipment for Westmoor has been flowing in steadily, facing district administrators with the problem of where to store the material.

The contractor was given a 120-day extension June 22 to complete the project and is already more than a month behind the revised deadline date. The board will consider invoking the $150 a day penalty clause after the school is completed, Morgan said.

BROKEN ANKLE: SCHOOL GIRL ASKS $20,000

A Westlake father has filed a $20,000 damage suit against Jefferson Elementary school district on behalf of his daughter who was injured in a fall at Colma intermediate school in May.

Angelo Baldelli, 663 Southgate, charges that lack of supervision and hazardous playground conditions resulted in serious injury to Lee Baldelli, 12.

According to the complainant, the girl broke her ankle in the fall, with the result that one leg is now shorter than the other, he claims.

Trustees Wednesday night moved to disallow the claim, turning the matter over to their insurance company for settlement.

In other action Wednesday, the board voted to refer a $757.25 claim against the district by contractor O. C. Jones & Sons to the district attorney. Some 13 days late in finishing work at Colma school last October, the contractor seeks compensation for the additional days. Trustees, however, earlier voted to enforce the penalty clause because of the delay, thus withholding the $757.25.

JUHS Budget Wins Final OK; Tax Rate To Drop 15c

Jefferson Union High School district trustees gave final approval Monday to a $2,247,019 budget. Despite the budget's substantial increase over last year, it will be financed on a tax rate nearly 15 cents below last year's.

Trustees approved the whopping outlay with only one major revision which did not affect the total figure.

Some $129,000 was transferred from capital outlay to "cushion" various funds. This will give the district control of the money, which might have been subject to "confis-

CITY BUDGET SNAGGED OVER WATER SQUABBLE

CHECK for $311 is handed to Mrs. Wilma Yaeger by Mrs. Phyllis Diltz after last week's porchlight appeal on "Jackie Yaeger Night." The Yaeger girl is recovering from near fatal injuries suffered when she was struck by a car June 22. Housewives in the older part of Daly City launched the fund drive to help the family meet heavy hospital bills. Extreme right are Clyde Yaeger and his son, Tim. Looking on is Ray Lagomarsino, Lions club representative, whose unit helped the campaign.

In what would have been an unprecedented action in municipal history, the city council almost voted NOT to pass the 1957-58 city budget Wednesday, after hearing assertions that the water system was drastically inadequate.

Before voting on the negative motion, proposed by Councilman Micheal De Bernardi, the council decided to table the budget, to give Councilman Sanford Vickers an opportunity to express his ideas on the budget. The budget and tax rate will probably be adopted Monday night.

De Bernardi's original motion to "not adopt the budget" won Vickers second and Councilman Del Wilson appeared ready to vote with the pair, which would have given the measure a 3-1 edge, with Councilman Paul Hupf absent. De Bernardi later voiced the lone vote against tabling the budget.

De Bernardi prefaced his motion with an attack on the inadequacy of the water system and the lack of funds in the budget to remedy the problem.

Cite SF Bills

He concluded that to continue the purchase of San Francisco water was no solution. He reminded councilmen that some $8000 had been spent for San Francisco water in the past several months. In August and September of 1956, it was revealed, $9154 was paid to San Francisco for stand-by water service.

De Bernardi claimed that one booster pump was serving 600 homes in Westlake Unit 9, "and if that goes, these people will be without water." He also asserted that a well off Southgate sat idle for six months and demanded to know reason for the long de-

Jackie Yaeger Fund Campaign Brings In $550

Smiles have returned to the faces of the Yaeger family, 465 San Diego avenue.

Daughter Jackie, 12, who battled death after she was run over by a car June 22, is getting better each day. She's home now.

Some $550 has been donated by citizens to help pay Jackie's hospital bills. Biggest chunk was a $311 check, coming from last week's porchlight drive by mothers in the older section of town.

Groups giving money included the DC-Colma Lions and the Jefferson school district's classified employees.

Heading the volunteer workers were Frances and Phyllis Diltz, Dorothy Wayman, Esther Beimche, Marie, Danny and Billy Bailey, Betty and Linda Whitman, Thelma Hamilton, Lynn Boskey, Sylvia Steinback, Lorin Fillback, Lorene Balsano, Marlene Taylor, Elfrieda Green, Dorothy Aronson, Corrine Andrus, Carole Andrus, Connie Spittler, Hazel Keene, A. Navarra, C. Shelver, Dorothy Waldvogel, Marion and Arline Plansky, and Hilda Hagney.

Ciampi Views A 'City'

A master plan which would make the 60-acre Westmoor High school development a small scale "city" was outlined Monday by Architect Mario Ciampi.

Ciampi's plan for cultural development, admittedly of a very long range nature, would include a 10,000 capacity bowl-type stadium for school football and community events, a public library, two tiny tot parks, a swimming pool, community auditorium, parking facilities, a district administration office and a second increment for the school itself.

The architect, pin-pointing the "cultural center" with a blue print of the entire plan, said the land could be sold to the city for the library and parks. According to Ciampi "this land is not needed for educational activities."

Superintendent Edward Morgan reminded Jefferson High school district school trustees that Ciampi's master plan would face many obstacles in that any increment beyond the present plant would be finan-

July Building Pace Takes Record Drop

Building in Daly City for July skidded to a colossal low as no new dwellings were launched.

The July total amounted to only 28 building permits for valuation amounting to a paltry $26,720. Included were: 24 alterations to dwellings, $22,570; 3 signs, $1150, and 1 retaining wall, $3000.

Building inspector George Hopman said 49 permits were issued in July, but 21 of them were "late" and will be carried on the August rolls.

Building here this month is expected to take an upward surge, mainly through the addition of some 50 to 60 homes in Westlake Unit 9.

Henry Doelger's newest additions will be three bedroom residences starting at a minimum of $15,500. The Westlake project alone will amount to almost $500,000 in valuation.

Man Arrested After He Socks His Lady, Cop

David A. Campbell, 27, had a dispute with his lady friend here last week.

Eleanor Sheppard, 6925 Mission street, called police to her trailer, hollering that Campbell was beating and choking her.

Officer Matthew Murray responded. He asked Campbell to leave. The latter refused. He then swung at Murray. With the help of Officer Phil LaBruzzo, Murray escorted Campbell to jail, using handcuffs.

Next Tuesday, the belligerent is due in municipal court to answer charges of drunkenness, assault and battery, disturbing the peace, and resisting arrest. He's free on $250 bail.

Miss Sheppard said Campbell had been living with her for some time, according to the police report. She did not reveal the nature of the argument.

Appoint Mike Callan To U. S. Grand Jury

Mike Callan, local builder and school trustee, Monday was named to the Federal Grand Jury in San Francisco.

Callan's jury services will be required once a week the next four months.

TAXES STAY SAME UNDER JESD BUDGET

Tax rates will remain the same in Jefferson Elementary school district under the 1957-58 budget adopted Wednesday night at a public hearing.

The record budget amounts to $2,176,201, compared to the 1956-57 figure of $2,031,470. Total taxes per homeowner for each $100 assessed valuation stay at $2.30.

Reduction in bond repayment and an increase in the district's assessed valuation rule out possible tax hikes. General purpose tax rate remains at the $1.50 maximum.

The district, impoverished and dependent on state aid, enters the new school year with $166,500 in capital outlay and an "unexpected" $88,000 in undistributed reserves. Portions of the latter will be earmarked into capital outlay to prevent the state from taking the "surplus."

Supt. H. Z. Weibel and his assistant David Shapiro have completed a list of "critical" projects on which to use the reserve funds. These include an expenditure of $60,000 to put finishing touches on Vista Grade and Vista Mar schools, both under construction at present.

Light Industry For 'Graveyard' Land Approved By Colma

George Lagomarsino Tuesday won approval to build three light industrial developments on cemetery-zoned property in Colma.

The realtor was granted a variance permit by the Colma planning commission. The town council must approve the recommendation.

Lagomarsino plans to erect an auto transmission shop, a paint storage yard and an auto body shop on 2½ acres of property on the west side of Old Mission road. The property is zoned C-1, for cemetery use.

Colma plans to eliminate need for future variances under a master plan for commercial and industrial zoning which will be considered at a public hearing Tuesday in the town hall.

Dump Pact Stymied On Rate Issue

Approval of contract for Daly City Scavenger Co. to operate a dump site on the Coastside threatened to bog down Wednesday when City Manager Howard Stites objected to the type of fill and cover methods to be used and questioned what should be a "reasonable" profit for the company.

After considerable debate on establishing rates which would grant the scavengers a "reasonable" profit on their investment and on the fill and cover methods to be used, councilmen directed Stites to iron out the issues with the garbage company representatives before Monday night's regular meeting.

The session was marked by a clash between Al Sereni, DC Scavenger president, and Val Balbi, 52 W. Market, former partner and spokesman for the local scavengers.

"Personal Matter"

Sereni charged that Balbi's appearance was a "personal matter between him and me. When he was with the Daly City Scavengers, he had a run down company. Now it's a good operation. Maybe there's a little jealousy involved."

The indignant Balbi, who said he is an inventor, countered that his appearance was no such thing, and that he was present "to return a favor to the people of Daly City because they went to bat for me once."

Balbi criticized the council for considering a 20-year contract with the scavengers, charging that it would prevent any other companies from bidding on the city franchise, leading to a "monopoly."

Conrad Reisch, attorney for the scavengers, told Balbi that, "We're giving the city the dump site in 20 years."

"Legal Action"

Balbi finally left in a huff, threatening to return Monday night with re-inforcements. "I may take legal action against this," he said.

Under the revised contract considered Wednesday, the long-term pact would be re-

Colma Shoplifter Essay 'Touching,' But 'Cuts No Ice'

Bernice Page, 26-year-old Colma woman won the literary plaudits of San Francisco Municipal Judge Clayton W. Horn this week, but at the same time received a six-month suspended sentence for shoplifting.

Mrs. Page, 520 A street, was one of five lady shoplifters directed by the judge to write 200-word essays on Cecil B. de Mille's movie, "The Ten Commandments," with special emphasis on the Eighth Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Steal."

Observed the jurist of Mrs. Page's essay, "I was touched ... my heart just had to go out to her."

Judge Horn particularly liked her literary efforts in one section which read, "I have hurt those I care most about and have gone against everything I was taught and have tried to teach my children."

The judge directed the five women to attend command performances of the movie as a condition of their probation seven weeks ago. Second requirement was to write their observances of the movie in essay form.

If re-negotiation reaches a stalemate, then the rate matter would be put up for arbitration before the courts.

Stites favored setting a specific figure, such as six per cent, as a "reasonable" return, but councilmen preferred establishing the amount at time of negotiations.

The present scavengers contract, which expires in August, 1959, will not be affected by the 20-year pact now being considered, with the exception that the dump operation will be subject to city control.

Sharp Park Will Get 'Austerity' School--Ciampi

Architect Mario Ciampi told Jefferson Union High School district trustees Monday that the Sharp Park school would be "an austerity building," because of state aid restrictions, and urged the board to hire an outside survey firm to draw up educational specifications for the plant.

The board took a dim view of paying some $6000 to $7000 for an independent survey, maintaining that most of the educational requirements preceeding architectural work could be drafted by staff members. It was also pointed out that the educational needs designed for Westmoor by the Stanford people should apply for the Sharp Park school.

Ciampi said the design and needs of Sharp Park school would differ considerably, since the plant would be built under state aid and would be an "austerity building."

Trustee Don Miller took exception to this statement, declaring, "We want the same thing for the Sharp Park kids as the children at Westmoor have."

City Budget Snagged Over Water Squabble

lay when an "emergency" situation existed.

He also questioned the delay in launching a water survey to determine the city's output and remaining water supply.

Stites Rebuttal

City Manager Howard Stites, countering that, "De Bernardi made a lot of statements but I'm not sure he understands the problem," said that repair of the well was delayed because it was questionable whether that well would pump enough water to warrant cost of operating it.

He also declared that, "No city in the Bay Area has better water service than Daly City."

"That's right," answered De Bernardi, "but not if you turn off the valves of San Francisco water. As long as we can turn on San Francisco water we're all right. But if you consider Daly City by itself, the situation is acute."

Why Delay?

Mayor Joseph Verducci asked De Bernardi why he didn't appeal for more improvements to the water system at budget time.

"It was fruitless to do so," he said. "I was against the budget from the start."

Vickers called for a survey by the city's own staff, observing that, "We ought to have enough talent here to do the job."

Prior to the budget squabble, the council sat as the board of equalization and adopted City Clerk Evelyn Mosman's assessment roll, showing total valuation of city property at $30,800,245, nearly a $5 million increase over last year.

Other Action

In other action, the council:

1. Called for a report on removing certain commercial property from Fire District 1, which requires masonry construction. Councilmen pointed out that the stringent Fire District 1 regulations imposed unnecessary hardship on some property owners.

2. Asked for a report from Stites on raising Daly City's building permit fees, which Stites said are much lower than those of surrounding cities.

3. Withheld approval to supply Benjamin Franklin school, outside of city limits, with water, pending report by Stites on availability of water and rates to be charged the school.

4. Approved business licenses for John Balsells, doing business as Johnny's Auto Sales, 6854 Mission; Albert E. Newton and John W. Hill, doing business as Automotive Twins, 6115 Mission; and granted dance permit for Ed's Place, 34 San Pedro road.

interpretation the San Francisco people might have."

Chairman Hartley Appleton said the San Francisco board apparently was attempting to "throw its weight too far."

"We are trying to be friendly about this project. Our needs are apparent and the state is behind us. I'm really appalled by Spears' move to fight us. We've always tried to be cooperative with San Francisco schools."

Weibel said he wished to correct the impression that San Francisco would set a meeting of all parties involved to discuss the matter.

"It was our understanding that we would invite them here, and not report to them."

Weibel said that Friday he would fully inform school planning and department of finance chiefs on the situation.

State Decision

"We'll go on their recommendation for a joint meeting. After all, they are the final authority," he said.

Weibel's Sacramento trip also will find the superintendent presenting a proposal for joint-use of recreation facilities at Westlake park, thus cutting amount of acreage necessary for a school on the Westlake basin property.

Builder George McKeon challenged the board Wednesday on the "ambiguity" of the district's letter on school site needs in the St. Francis Heights subdivision.

McKeon Again

Charging that Weibel's letter "said nothing and gave us no guarantee that you wouldn't seek more acreage," McKeon was assured that the original agreement for three 10-acre sites would stand.

The builder pointed out that instead of 30 acres, the district was getting almost 40, once slopes and grading were resolved. "It's still the best acreage in the area," McKeon repeated.

Elwood Lehman, state representative, Friday rejected one of two final maps for location of the M. Pauline Brown school site adjoining McKeon's property. Shapiro ordered three more site surveys in order to come up with one meeting state approval.

Dick Lyon, attorney for the Schenones, exchanged a few sharp words with Appleton when the former questioned the district's move onto his client's property.

Lyon said purchase of the property to extend the M. Pauline Brown school would severely hamper Schenone's greenhouse and heather operations.

"We intend to fight this move as long as other sites are available," Lyon pronounced.

CSM Students May Sign Early

New and returning College of San Mateo students may take advantage of a two week advance registration period which will begin Monday, August 19, and run through Friday, August 30. The full counseling staff will be available during this time.

Students registering during this time will have a one-half hour appointment with a counselor and will be able to complete their registration so that they will be ready to begin classes when college opens Tuesday, September 10. All new students must file applications for admission and high school transcripts before the date of the appointments with counselors.

Registration during these last two weeks of August is by appointment only. Appointments may be secured by writing or phoning the Office of Student Personnel, DI 2-1421. Appointments can be made during the day or evening.

Mercy High Girl Dies After Bike Crash On Coast

A 16-year-old Mercy High school girl suffered fatal injuries Monday morning when she jumped from her bicycle to avoid being hit by a truck on Coast Highway near Rockaway Beach.

Judy Pedretti, of 1729 Eucalyptus drive, died Tuesday following surgery at St. Joseph's hospital.

California Highway Patrol said the victim apparently leaped off her bike when the truck, going in the same direction, came alongside her. Officers reported that the truck driver, who was not cited, rammed an embankment in his attempt to avert the collision.

Doctors said the girl sustained fractures of the skull in three places, necessitating immediate surgery.

Police Commissioners

Due to vacations, Broadmoor Police Commission has rescheduled its August meeting from next Tuesday evening to the night of August 20. Roll call starts at 8 o'clock.

Callan To Stay On Plaque

Trustees debated Monday night on the subject of whose names should appear on the plaque commemorating Westmoor High school. In fact one board member asked, "Why have a plaque at all?"

Lyal Ingersoll wondered about the inclusion of Thomas Callan Sr. on the bronze plate. While Callan was a Jefferson High school trustee when the Westmoor project was drafted, Ingersoll said Callan might not want his name connected with the building. He explained that Callan had criticized the Jefferson cafeteria building, hinting that he would rather have not had his name on the plaque for that structure.

Ingersoll suggested that all persons whose names were to be included on the plaque be contacted for their approval.

Trustee Don Miller asked, "Why have a plaque at all?" I feel the same way about plaques as I do about dedications. We shouldn't let all the big shots take over, just the principals and teachers and people immediately concerned."

Ingersoll replied, however, that "There will be a plaque there, even if Ciampi(architect Mario) has to pay for it himself."

Trustee Fontana, a monument maker by trade, said he'd like to do the plaque in granite, "but that's against the law."

Ingersoll, although expressing himself as "not in accord with the list of names," said he would approve them if all the persons to be included on the plaque gave their permission first. The board concurred.

Those who will have their names engraved on the plaque include: Trustees Ingersoll, Anna M. Eason, Fontana, Raymond T. Whitney, Miller, former trustees, Callan, Mildred McGeein, former superintendent Stanford Hannah, Superintendeent Edward Morgan and Principal Glenn South.

DC Rockets Clip San Bruno, 8-7

Daly City Rockets went eight tough innings Saturday to down San Bruno, 8-7, in a wild Peninsula Baseball League game.

The Rockets tied the score in the seventh as Serreccia singled, was tripled home by Mike Wills, and then Wills was brought in on Lou Mortola's base hit.

Back-to-back doubles by Tom McHugh and Bill Fosberry after a triple by Skip Crudo gave the Daly Cityans the margin of victory.

Reliefer Byron Nelson, taking over in the fourth for Dave Gehere, got the win.

The Rockets are 2-2 in league standings.

Merchants Stop Powerful YMI To Knot League

Westlake Merchants knocked over unbeaten YMI, 9-6, last Sunday to grab a tie for first in the Class AA League with two games to go.

Jim Wilson, Jeff High southpaw, went the route for Manager Jack Ingles in the extra inning affair. A three-run rally in the eighth cinched the contest.

YMI took advantage of errors for a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Big frame for Westlake was a five-run third. Al Bousque and Bob Farber slapped key base hits.

This Sunday the locals meet New Paradise Cafe, site undetermined at press time.

ced by state funds and subject to the state's approval.

Pool Fund Drive

He suggested, however, that the swimming pool might be financed by a community fund drive, a method that has been successful in other areas.

Under Ciampi's plan, the only facilities which the school district would finance would be increments to the educational facilities.

Trustees nodded in approbation at Ciampi's plan, but shelved it for the time being to get at problems closer at hand.

In other action, the board:

"Waving Wall"

1. Called for an engineering report on a "waving wall" in the Little Theater at Jefferson High school, reportedly dislodged by the March 22 quake.

2. Approved sale of first issue of $1,135,000 in bonds, a portion of the amount approved by district voters May 17. The bonds will be sold September 3. Redemption is in 1982.

3. Approved $1 registration fee for adult school.

4. Learned that traffic signals on Skyline boulevard at Westmoor and Westridge avenues might be approved by the state in next year's budget, following further traffic surveys to determine if the signals are warranted.

5. Held over, pending report from Ciampi, the allocation of $4500 to install pressure reducing valves at Westmoor High school which would allow the district to use Daly City water.

The district is still undecided whether it should install its own reservoir and pumping facilities for the school, at estimated cost of $50,000.

6. Hired: Mrs. Irene Johnson, cafeteria manager, at salary of $285; Mrs. Virginia Linda, registrar, $290; accepted resignation of Mrs. Nancy Brown, physical education instructor, and hired as her replacement Miss Carol Ghens, at salary of $4700.

7. Scheduled Saturday, September 7, for inspection tour of Linda Mar school site.

JUHS Budget Wins Final OK; Tax Rate To Drop 15c

cation" by the state when the district goes under state aid. If a district's "reserves" are in excess of a state formula, the money is appropriated by the state, then returned as part of the loan.

Superintendent Edward Morgan explained that none of the "cushion" funds allocated to nine various departments would be touched without express approval of the board.

The budget will be financed on a tax rate of slightly over $1.77, an appreciable cut from last year's $1.92 levy. This was made possible by reducing the amount of bond repayment and spreading the amortization out to later years when the tax base will be broadened.

Major item in the 1957-58 budget is for cost of instruction, nearly $940,000.

The budget provides for a balance of slightly more than $450,000 in capital outlay, after elimination of the $129,000 figure which was channeled to other funds.

A total of $80,000 has been set aside for general reserve, $170,000 for undistributed reserve.

A CITY OF ASSORTED SURVEYS

The survey mania has hit Daly City.

Nearly every time the city or schools pay their bills, there's one or two warrants for "Whatshisname & Associates."

The craze for outside "experts" to conduct surveys for multifarious whimsies has resulted in the pouring out of between $30,000 and $40,000 from local government coffers in the past two years.

One of the most recent examples was the city's survey on land assessment practices affecting Daly City.

A bill was submitted for a cool 1000 bucks for the survey, which did nothing more than reiterate the county assessor's arguments against Daly City's tax protest.

It appeared that the survey group tape recorded the assessor's rebuttal to Daly City taxpayers, then put it in booklet form. Any city official could have done as well.

In fact, the city staff that went to work accumulating data for the Daly City tax protest case came up with important information not even touched on in the $1000 survey.

The Jefferson High School district paid out nearly $7000 for the "Stanford" people to tell them how Westmoor should be built. Most of the information gleaned by the "Stanford" people (a private concern which does not represent Stanford university), was pried out of school district administrators and teachers. But recommendations of the local staff went unheeded. Trustee Don Miller remarked that most of the observations in the survey were of an obvious nature.

Another such "educational requirements" survey is sought for the district's Sharp Park building, but we were relieved to see the trustees put the temporary squelch on it.

As was pointed out, why should the educational requirements differ to any great degree from the Westmoor plant. In any event, whatever minor differences there might be in educational needs for two schools only six miles apart should not add up to another $7000 in professional erudition.

The local elementary school district has had its share of "surveyitis," and has cancelled warrants for several thousand dollars to show for it. And that's about all.

The most recent survey conducted by the "Stanford" people turned out to be on a subject altogether different from the one trustees sought investigation on.

The Coro people came out to investigate the annexation of Daly City to Broadmoor, later did a study on the advantages of incorporation for the Broadmoor-Colma area. In both cases, city and county staffs did most of the work, since they had the information available all the time.

Another great study looms on the horizon in Daly City in the form of a land-use plan to be formulated by the professional fact-finders, at a tidy cost of about $16,000, more than half of which will be paid by the city.

They will tell the city how to make the best use of its land in the future. The only problem is, the city will have spent all its money for surveys and won't be able to make the suggested land improvements.

There are some problems facing local governments which demand professional-type research work.

But we wonder when governments will start drawing the line between surveys for legitimate needs and just plain tomfoolery.

Governments are hiring more and more high paid professional administrators, yet continue to seek the counsel of the "Whooosis & Associates" when they want some facts.

One of the two has got to go. . . . Before the survey groups start doing research on each other.

LAW IN ACTION

ATTRACTIVE NUISANCES

You owe children a duty to protect them from themselves.

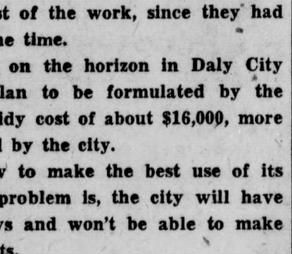
For example, suppose a grown-up climbs your fence and goes to a lot of trouble to sneak a swim in your pool while you are away. Should he drown, no court is likely to hold you liable for damages. The man brought on or contributed to his own death.

But not so a child: When you have an "attractive nuisance" on your land, you are duty bound to think carefully of the safety of children who may wander in and get hurt or killed playing with it.

Courts have held many things to be attractive nuisances—deep holes, especially water-filled ones, crumbling walls, lumber piles that could fall on a child, uncovered wells, bare electric wires, unlocked sheds containing tools, blasting powder, rusty gates, open cellar doors, unrailed cliffs, etc.

Nor do you have to wait until some child gets hurt before you can put an end to such nuisances. If there is such an "attractive nuisance" in your neighborhood, call it to the owner's attention and ask him to make it safe. Most of them will be grateful. But if the owner won't act, you can bring an action to "abate the nuisance" in court, and get an order making him act.

Some things have been such death traps for children that our law makers have put them under a criminal ban.



For example, many children have smothered to death at play behind the doors of old abandoned ice boxes or refrigerators. So California law makers have made it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine to discard such things without making them harmless—by taking off the doors, hinges or latches.

First Disability Checks Received By DC Residents

A number of Daly City residents who are severely disabled received their first disability insurance check last Saturday, according to Mrs. Marcia Leton Kahn, district office manager of the social security office at 2747 Mission street, San Francisco.

More than 100,000 disabled workers all over the Nation have been notified that they are entitled to social security disability insurance benefits and received their first benefit checks Saturday.

In making this announcement, Mrs. Kahn noted that action is being taken as speedily as possible on all disability applications and that many other disabled workers, who may not yet have received notice of final action on their applications, will be receiving their first checks in coming months. No further action is necessary on their part, she said.

All disabled workers who meet the requirements of the law, and whose applications have been filed with their social security offices before the end of December, 1957, Mrs. Kahn said, will get benefit payments for the months of July through December. After December payments cannot be made for any month before the month of application.

In order to get disability insurance benefits, a person must be between 50 and 65 years of age and must have a long-lasting disability so severe that he is not able to engage in any substantial gainful activity. He must have worked under social security for five out of the ten years before he became disabled, including a year and a half out of the three years just before his disability began.

In addition to the disability benefits, the law provides that disabled people of any age who meet the disability and work requirements may apply to have their social security records frozen. When a worker's social security record is frozen, his own and his family's future benefit rights are protected.

For further information telephone MIssion 7-9722 or call at 2747 Mission street.

Tell Deadline To File For DisabilityPay

Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn, district manager of the social security office at 2747 Mission street, San Francisco, declared today that a long-disabled worker now has until the beginning of July, 1958, to file an application for the "disability freeze" and still have his social security earnings record protected as of the date he actually became disabled.

The law now permits a veteran to receive compensation from the Veterans Administration for service-connected disability without any reduction in the amount of his disability insurance under social security. These changes became effective when President Eisenhower signed P.L. 109 recently.

Purpose of the "disability freeze" is to prevent those years during which a severe and indefinite disability keeps a person out of work from counting against him on eligibility for benefits or on the amount of his benefits. A person cannot qualify for the "freeze" unless, in addition to meeting disability requirements, he has worked for at least five years under social security and for about 1½ years during the 3-year period just before his disability began.

Until the recent change in the law, a period of disability could not be determined to have begun earlier than 12 months before application for the freeze, unless the application was made before the end of June, 1957. For this reason, a disabled person who failed to make his claim before the end of June, and who had become disabled before January 1, 1955, would have lost his right to have his social security record frozen because he could not possibly meet the work requirements.

Morever, without the freeze he might have lost future rights to any security benefits for himself or his family, because at the time he dies or becomes 65 he may not have the required work credit. The law, as now amended, gives those who were disabled before January 1, 1955, until June 30, 1958, to file an application for the disability freeze to protect their rights to old-age, survivors, or disability insurance.

In a city of 25,000 population, the American Cancer Society says that 110 persons will be under treatment for cancer this year. Of these,, 66 will be new cases.

Letters To The Editor

Letter To Editor 'Improves' Park

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

The power of the press really paid off when you ran my letter to the editor a few weeks back. Marchbanks baseball field has been in top condition since. The restrooms are open, the bases are there, and between each game the field is dragged for smoothness.

You may wish to pass the world along that all is going well, and people who come from all over to see the sandlotters have at it at Marchbanks are impressed.

Incidentally, Tom Bournellis' Daly City Drugs played there 34th game under his banner Sunday and have put together a pretty fair record. They've won 30, lost 3, and tied one—called in the tenth inning, 1-1.

We really appreciate the fine coverage you have given the team, and believe me your clips are the makings of a dozen or more scrap books. Thanks so much.

Sincerely,
BILL HYNES
Baseball Coach

Major Fish Kill At Lake Merced

A major fish kill has occurred at Lake Merced, biologists of the California Department of Fish and Game feared today.

Thousands of small fish have been washing up on the shore of South Lake and dead fish have even been reported spurting from lake-fed sprinklers on the Harding Park Golf course.

Cause of the die-off was decomposing algae, killed by the city water department in a recent effort to clear up the water in the lake.

The kill was confined to South Lake, which the water department had treated July 25 with copper sulphate (bluestone) to kill an excessive growth of the microscopic plantlife, which was discoloring the water and producing an unpleasont odor.

Earlier, treatment of the smaller South Impoundment on July 22 had produced no apparent ill effects.

The lakes were being treated one at a time, following a department of fish and game caution that such a die-off might occur.

Plans to treat North Lake have been postponed, pending a meeting of the interested agencies.

Lake Merced is maintained by the water department as a stand-by water supply, in case catastrophe should disrupt the regular system. The lake has not been used for this purpose for many years, however. Recreational use of the lake is administered by the city recreation and park department.

Most of the dead fish were sticklebacks, the department of fish and game reported. These are generally considered a "trash" species. But a number of dead trout were also found, and the fish and game men, who stock the lake for recreational fishing, feared that if the tough little sticklebacks were dying, the trout population was probably as hard hit.

However, most dead fish sink to the bottom, making it difficult to get an accurate estimate of such kills.

Tests conducted July 29 and 30 showed South Lake waters to be still below the oxygen levels necessary for fish, and numerous small fish around the edge of the lake were in distress.

San Francisco's first warehouse was built in 1836 by Jacob Primer Leese, who sailed into the bay aboard the barque "Don Quixote," from Monterey.

TAVERN OWNER ARRESTED FOR TIPSY DRIVING

A bar owner who allegedly sampled too much of his product was arrested for drunk driving here early Tuesday morning after he reportedly drove down Mission street at speeds up to 80 miles per hour.

Norman C. Swanson, 40, departed city jail on $500 bond and will appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

Officer Al Nicolini, spotting Swanson's sedan feaving south on Mission about 2 a.m., quickly brought the speedster to a halt.

Swanson readily admitted he was intoxicated, according to Nicolini. A "walking" sobriety test verified Swanson's condition. The pub keeper had trouble following a straight line and touching his nose while his eyes were closed, the officer reported.

Legion's 8th District Installs New Officers

Eighth District American Legion Auxiliary placed its affairs into the hands of a new staff Friday at Veterans War Memorial Building, San Francisco.

Mrs. Irene Pence is the new president. Department secretary-treasurer Mrs. Laura C. Mahan was installing officer, assisted by the Zane Irwin Auxiliary 93 Ritualistic Team, and the San Francisco Junior Drill Team as honor guard.

Mrs. Pence's officers for 1957-1958 are: Mrs. Eula Jacobsen, first vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, second vice-president; Mrs. Julia Bailey, secretary; Mrs. Rose Haughy, treasurer; Mrs. Angie Castro, chaplain; Mrs. Mary McArthur, marshal; Mrs. Edna Freese, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Minnie Mersereau, musician, and Mrs. Luella Hegre, junior past president.

Uncooperative Salesman Arrested For Speeding

Albert Ostrow, 57, a San Francisco salesman, didn't like it one bit when a Daly City police officer stopped his car on Mission street this week for going 40 mph in a 25 mph zone.

Ostrow refused to sign the speeding citation. The officer then booked him. Posting $50 bond, the salesman was released to appear in municipal court next Tuesday.

No Sewage Backlog At Plant, Wilson Told

Sanitation district officials told director Del Wilson Monday that there was nothing to reports that the district's treatment plant had a 15½ million gallon backlog of sewage at one time.

Wilson told the board he had been informed of the backlog by a citizen.

District engineer C. L. White said an inspection of the records revealed no such backlog since the plant started operation two years ago.

In other action Monday, directors awarded contract to Associated Pipeline to construct a weir protection bypass at the plant, at cost of $7270. The bypass will divert excessive storm drain water from the sewage plant during times of heavy rain fall.

Bad Check Jails Hospital Worker

A 27-year-old hospital orderly was arrested here Friday for cashing a forged check at Bank of America on Mission street last month.

Remanded to sheriff's custody Tuesday after he waived preliminary hearing in municipal court was Harrison J. Burrus, an employee at Mt. Zion hospital.

Inspectors E. P. Minehart and Al Torre, San Francisco fraud detail, tracked down Burrus last week.

Burrus presented the cashier a check for $80, using J. M. Corby as the signature. Investigation at the hospital disclosed that Corby is a patient there.

Colma Thief's Hobby Certainly No Mystery

Police are sure of at least one thing in their hunt for a thief who raided a Colma establishment late Sunday night. The culprit is a sportsman.

Stolen from Colma Driving Range were approximately 1800 new golf balls, striped red and blue. Enough for a lifetime—even for hackers.

Traffic Tickets Set Arrest Of Musician

Failure to heed seven San Francisco traffic tickets resulted in the arrest of a 43-year-old Westlake musician here Saturday.

Booked by Daly City police was Larry L. Cannon, 83 Eastgate drive, Westlake.

Drivers' Merit System Extends License Validity

A new law applying a special merit system to the issuance of drivers' licenses goes into effect September 11, says the California State Automobile Association.

The incentive to safe driving to be offered will be an extended term of validity of the license issued to a driver who carefully observes the law. Instead of receiving a four-year license upon applying for renewal, the eligible driver will receive a license good until the fifth birthday after his application for renewal.

The AAA motorists' organization points out that the five-year license will be issued only after a check of the applicant's record shows no more than one court conviction for misdemeanor traffic law violation by an operator. Parking violations are not counted. Any conviction of a felony involving a motor vehicle, of course, will eliminate eligibility for five-year renewal.

Persons who make their first application for a California driver's license will receive a license good until the third birthday after application.

An applicant for renewal of an operator's license whose record shows that he has been convicted of two or more moving violations of the law within the previous two years will be given a license that will expire on the second birthday after application for renewal.

The fees for application and tests remain at $3 and will be required for any term or category of a driver's license.

Francis Assured More Study On New State College

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Roy E. Simpson assured Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo today that the State Board of Education will give further consideration for the establishment of a state college in San Mateo County.

He also stated in a letter to the state legislator that the state board acknowledges the fact that House Resolution 202 (Francis) directs the State Board of Education, Liaison Committee of the Regents of the University of California and the State Assembly Interim Committee to study all facts and needs for a state college in San Mateo County. Francis contends that this resolution guarantees a true and factual study for a state college.

The Liaison Committee's report this year excluded San Mateo County after a two-year study from a 13-geographical area priority list for the future construction of state colleges. The report states, "If one or more state colleges were established in the East Bay Area, San Francisco State College (and San Jose State College) should be able to absorb the state college needs developing in San Mateo County."

Assemblymen Francis and Carl Britschgi of Redwood City took issue with the report and pointed out that both of these state colleges were overcrowded with space and site restrictions, and consequently many qualified high school graduates in San Mateo County could not obtain admission. Francis, who introduced a bill in the State Legislature during the 1957 general session to establish a state college in county, argues that "based on facts, statistics and growth, San Mateo County was entitled to a high place on the priority list from which it was completely omitted."

Navy Reports Two More DC Recruits

Two more Jeff High graduates, Marcus E. Glover and Albert E. Howard recently signed up with the U. S. Navy at the recruiting station here.

Glover is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Glover, 99 Bepler street, Daly City, and Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Howard, 416 Atlanta street.

The pair enlisted in the Navy under the "Buddy Program" which will find them in the same unit at San Diego Naval Training Center. After nine weeks of "boot" training, they will be sent to advanced training schools and to units of the fleet.

Information about the Navy's "Enlist With Your Buddy Program" and "The High School Graduate Training Program" can be obtained by visiting the local recruiting station at 6705 Mission street, Daly City or call PL 6-3740.

In the Museum of Moneys of the World in New York City, 75,000 specimens of money from earliest forms to modern coins and currencies are exhibited.

PT&T Asks Rate Hike On Messages

Pacific Telephone today asked the California Public Utilities Commission for a repricing of some of its rates to help offset increased wage payments and other costs.

Under the company's proposal, monthly rates for main and party line telephone service would be unchanged. But charges on most Bay Area calls beyond 8 miles would be increased by 4.4 cents, the cost of a single message unit.

Under the proposal, a three-minute call from Daly City to Redwood City would take five message units instead of the present four. This would mean an increase of 4.4 cents in the cost of the call.

On person-to-person calls, increases ranging from 5 to 40 cents for the first three minutes would apply, the charge depending upon the distance.

Strictly For Veterans

By Grace Hill

There's no deadline for a veteran to request compensation for a service-connected disability. But there is an added dollars-and-cents incentive to promptness for the veteran who has just been discharged.

If you are disabled when you come out of military service, it will pay you to file a compensation request within one year from the date of your discharge. If the Veterans Administration approves the compensation request within the first year, payments can be made retroactive—dated all the way back to the date of discharge. But if an ex-serviceman waits beyond a year from date of discharge to apply, the best the VA can do is start payments from date of the application.

Any veteran may be entitled to regular monthly compensation payments for injuries or ailments which were incurred in, traceable to, or agravated by military service. It must be rated at least 10 percent disabling for minimum compensation to be payable. Contact your veterans' organization service officer for full details.

Veterans are urged to join a veterans' organization. It is the numerical strength of the veteran organizations that protects the veteran's benefits that now exist. A great deal of pressure is now being brought to bear on local, state and federal government agencies to cancel or curtail many of these just and necessary benefits.

With installation and vacations soon over, all posts and units of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars are working on programs for the coming year. Rehabilitation, child welfare and community service programs head the list. Extensive hospital work, assistance to needy veterans' families and participation in the many community programs will be planned. Definite dates of these various activities will be published as soon as obtained. Membership in these organizations is vitally important. Join your local Post or Unit and participate in these programs.

The sudden passing of Jack Robertson, Commander of San Bruno Post 409, American Legion, is mourned by the entire county. His active participation in all affairs concerning the veterans has done much in promoting their welfare in this county.

The officers of Linda Mar Post 615, American Legion, will be installed this Friday evening, August 9.

Smogville Trip Means Air Ride For 2 Runaways

Two 14-year-old Daly City youths who decided to forsake Daly City's fog for Southern California's smog are back in harness here this week.

Disgruntled about conditions at home, Walter A. Morales, 848 Hanover street, and his buddy, Richard Myerson, 148 Flournoy street, took off for the southland July 28.

Walter's dad figured the boy would contact friends in LA, so he gave LA police the probable address of his son's destination.

Meanwhile, Richard got either homesick or scared and decided to return home. He reported to LA police, who promptly put him on a plane for Daly City.

Acting on the earlier message, the LA gendarmes picked up Walter, not knowing that he had been accompanied by Richard.

Walter also got the red carpet treatment—a ride via the skies.

Both boys are happy to be home. The enemy territory wasn't so attractive after all—even without the fog.

A JOYFUL MEETING

Sister, Brother Re-United After 38 Years

AFTER 38 YEARS Mrs. Ray Eslick, 48 Vendome, was reunited with her brother, Dale Finicum, a rancher in Ferdonia, Ariz. Happy pair are shown here shortly after meeting for the first time in nearly two decades.

A Daly City woman and her brother held a joyful reunion recently, their first contact in 38 years.

Adeline Eslick, 48 Vendome, learned of her brother's whereabouts when she happened to come upon her unusual maiden name, Finicum, in the San Francisco phone book.

She called the number, discovered it to be that of her aunt, and learned that her brother, Dale Finicum, was a rancher in Ferdonia, Ariz.

She and her husband, Ray, a driver for a local cleaning establishment, visited Finicum on their recent vacation. She had last seen her brother when she was three years old. He was 12. Mrs. Eslick lost contact with her brother Dale 21 years ago and in the interim, did not know if he was still living.

The happy gathering also had a note of sadness.

She also discovered that her father, Fred, 77, is in a hospital in Los Angeles. The Eslicks plan to visit him at their first opportunity.

Something For Everyone

By The Staff Of The Daly City Public Library

The story of the country's weather, how it acts and where it comes from, has received increased interest in recent years.

The storms, heavy rains, hurricanes, tornadoes and other freak weather that the country has been having always stirs up a great deal of interest in this subject.

Good handbooks about our weather include "Understanding the Weather," by Thomas Longstreth, and "How About the Weather," by Robert Fisher.

Weather forecasting, a growing hobby throughout the country, is described in Charles Laird's "Weathercasting."

Other books of general interest about the weather are: "Astronomy, Maps and Weather," by Charles Clayton Wylie and "Fair and Warmer: the Problem of Weather Forecasting and the Work of the United States Weather Bureau," by Joseph Gaer.

Weather books of particular interest to younger readers are "All About the Weather," by Ivan Ray Tannehill, Herman Schneider's "Everyday Weather and How it Works," and "Our Changing Weather," by Carroll Lane Feather.

All of the books mentioned are available in the local library collections. In fact, your public library has something for everyone, so stop there soon and see what there is for you! The addresses are: Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, and Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive in Westlake shopping center.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

One of the great collaborations in the history of the stage came about because two men, already noted in their respective fields, were introduced one morning in 1869 in an empty English theater. Their relationship was to last some 25 years and, despite considerable personal disharmony (their countless "final" quarrels are legendary) it was to enrich the world with some of the most sparkling music and captivating lyrics ever written.

We refer of course to Gilbert and Sullivan, whose seldom heard "The Sorcerer" is being presented by The Lamplighters at the Opera Ring, 123 South Van Ness, Fridays and Saturdays.

Spritely Tunes

The fascinating thing about "The Sorcerer" is that, although a very early example of G&S's marvelous teamwork, it so marvelously expresses what they were to say their whole lives. Almost as though they had attained artistic maturity in one bound. At first hearing many of its spritely tunes are so familiar one suspects Sullivan wasn't above cannibalizing his own work.

For those who must know just a bit before investing an evening, it tells of Alexis (Orva Hoskinson) who is betrothed to Aline (Betty Gordon). Blissfully happy with his approaching connubial state, he insists that everyone join him, requesting John Wellington Wells (H. Clay Barnard) to mix a love philtre with the tea, with results reminiscent of those in Midsummer Night's Dream" when Puck performed a similar service.

For a while things are at sixes and sevens, but Wells is a family sorcerer not an evil magician, so he rectifies his error in a quite drastic manner and everyone ends up with the right one.

Mad Hatter

Orva Hospinson does some beautiful singing, Byron Jones in the role of the vicar and Allan Louw as Sir Marmaduke make strong contributions to the excellence of the production, but it is H. Clay Barnard, resembling the Mad Hatter, who is the hit of the evening.

Feminine voices are not up to these standards. Peggy Overshiner has a sweet, if not too powerful voice; Betty Gordon tended to be a mite shrill at times. Of the lot, June Wilkins is the best, singing Lady Annabella with a warm richness.

On the whole, it is a very professional production, presented with a freshness and buoyancy that does full justice to this light-hearted echo from the Victorian Age.

Auditions Going Strong For City 'Talent Show'

Auditions are in full swing at local playgrounds as children are competing for finalist slots in the city-wide Talent Show, August 22, at War Memorial building.

Some 13 acts will be presented in the finals. Children will serve as the judges.

Auditions for master of ceremonies have attracted three candidates. In the running are Roger Stahl, 275 Hillside boulevard; Carmine Forcini, 80 Lakemont drive, and Peter Pollat, 88 Northgate avenue. Other boys, ages 13 to 18, who would like to compete for emcee duty should call Mrs. Kay Irvine, DE 3-6165.

Seventy-five youngsters participated in the Westlake-Olympia talent showdown last week. Reaching the finals were Joan Pollat, Roberta Arreghini, Judy Moore, Mary Ann Woodall, Kenny Burkey, Steve Lamanet, Robert Hage and Richard Pagano.

Auditioned Friday at Marchbanks park were Judy Rochione, accordionist, and Arlene Johnson, acrobatic specialist.

Other children who have been auditioned are: David Mealey, Maureen Milroy, Joan Price, Lanette and Cheryl Newman, Judith and Jackie Streeter, Nancy Baltazar, Antionette Phillips, Susan Woodall, Francis Iacona, Shirley Rosaia, Carol Solari, Sherry Asaro, Mario Molino, Otto Villas, Donela, Donald, Ronald, and Pauline Hackett, Jeanie and Shirley Fox, Donna and Judy Ricci, Trudy and Danny McKean, Donna and Chuckie Leindecker, Nancy Lee Sgambeti, Patrick Kenny, Mary Grace Delfino, Donna Dillabar, Gary Sanguinetti, Cynthia Balbi, Madeline Martinelli, Connie Hemmingway, Lucille Constantine, Susan Perluso, Julia Romero, Mary Frances Crowley, Paul Brasker, Kathleen Crowley, Nancy Ellen Siegel, Cissie Alberti, Susan Banchi, Pat and Mike Clemence, Rawnie Clemence, Laura Ann Figone, Robin Picchi, Cathy Villias and Palma Ann Williams.

Auditions continue this Friday at Marchbanks, 1 p.m., and Benjamin Franklin and Garden Village, 11 a.m.

OLPH Affair

Calegari Summons Festival Committee

Plans for the Fall Festival of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church were accelerated at the committee meeting recently called by General Chairman George Calegari.

The annual affair will take place the weekend of September 20, 21 and 22 in the school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue.

The hilltop school, one of the last three-story school buildings built in the county, opened its doors 10 years ago and has produced 10 graduating classes. RECREATION REPORT

Marchbanks Park

Vehicle Day found the following winners representing Marchbanks: Best decorated wagon, Johnny Drew; best decorated tricycle, Guy Aronson. Best decorated scooter, George Stabile. Most unusual entry, Catalina Racer, Paul Craig, and the best homemade vehicle award, Raymond Cattelan.

A newspaper accuracy throwing contest provided much interest. Arthur Martinez took third and Carl Carpenter placed fourth. Only two coasters entered the downhill race which Raymond Cattelan won over Darryll Crist.

The uphill bike speed race was won by Carl Carpenter and Daniel Martinez placed third. The level speed race found Floyd Byrum winning easily with Daniel Martinez again placing third.

A slow down hill race in which the last ride to cross the finish line is declared the winner was won by Carl Carpenter. Daniel Martinez finished third.

Fifteen youngsters from Marchbanks attended the trip to Skateland. The excursion gave Carl Kay, Dina Grout, and Maxine DeCambra an opportunity to wear cute skating outfits. After roller-skating, the Fun House attracted many, including Judy Rachione, George Glasner, and Mary and Dickie Minor. Winning prizes in various skill games were Maureen Murphy, Linda Siegel, and Harold Iodence. In the warm weather, the ocean proved a temptation for Bobby and Art Rasmussen, Carl and Bill Carpenter, and Floyd Byrum, who finished off the day with a little wading in the surf.

Ping-pong is still the most popular activity with the teenagers. It looks as though the ping-pong championship in the teen-ager girls' division will go to Lola Patron. In fact, very few boys can beat this young lady.

Westlake School

We went to Westlake Park for the talent show tryouts. Those who made the finals were Judy Moore, tap dance; Mary Ann Woodall, tap dance, and a Pantomime group consisting of Richard Pagano, Steve Lamanet, Dennis Beach, Ken Burkey and Bob Hage. Others participating in the tryouts were Antionette Pinelli and Susan Woodall, bop dancing.

Our checker tournament for 10-and-under is completed. Bill Hage won over Judy Moore for the school championship. Hage had defeated everyone, then was challenged by Skipper Smith who was vacationing. Skip beat Bob in a two-out-of-three series, but Bill did very well considering he is only 7. Skip Smith will represent us in the all-city championships. Judy Moore will be our female representative.

Boys' champion in paddle pool is Frank Knowleton. Girls' champion is Sherry Asaro.

Westlake school did well in bike day.

Thursday night, August 21, there will be an open house at Westlake School from 7-8:30 for the purpose of showing the results of our arts and crafts program and model building work. There will also be a talent show. All parents and guests are welcome.

Our trip to Skateland found 27 boys and girls participating.

Jefferson School

Jefferson school and Colma school shared the annual vehicle show and races. Jerry Benedetti won the bicycle events, Steve Adams won the Flexi race, and Larry Haston the award for the best decorated bicycle.

In arts and crafts, we've been making potato prints. Judy Silvestri and Jeanne Capurro made some nice prints.

This Tuesday was our final talent show. Winners will perform at Colma School for the right to compete at War Memorial Building on August 22.

Olympia

Olympia school, Westlake school, and Westlake park observed Wheels on Parade at Westlake park. Those from Olympia who won awards were Lynda Cassidy, Clay Stringer, Mark Derish, Kemala Robbins, Ernie Massola, Mike Majourau, Tom Bundras, Frank Cesena, Bobby Plant and Eddie Montague.

Making the Skateland trip were: Gary Majourau, Lynda Cassidy, Marilyn Prine, Ronald Belli, Luianne Sellig and John Hutchinson.

Lincoln Playground

Though outhit 9 to 5, Lincoln Park softball team won its first league game of the year from Marchbanks Park, 5-4.

Members of the Lincoln up dash for girls was won by Tina Enberg, Diane Caruso was second, with Judy Reed third. The boys' pick-up dash was won by Mike Steele, with Mike DeBernardi second and Tom Enberg third. Final contest was Accuracy Toss with Tom Enberg first, Mike DeBernardi second and Judy Reed third. It was agreed by all that Mark Bullock had the most unique vehicle and Steven Sears the best decorated.

TV and Radio

Goodbye To "Home"

A catastrophe has befallen television this week. At least we feel it is, because this Friday is the 893rd and final edition of one of the most outstanding programs on the TV lanes, the "Home" show, which has been telecast daily over NBC, KRON-TV, for the past three years. Beginning next week (at the same time) is a new program, "Arlene Francis Show," an audience participation variety type, which from reading advance releases sounds to us like a typical audience quiz program — too many of which are monopolizing the air lanes.

Although we hesitate to judge a program until we have seen it, we do wish to protest the end of "Home." Covering a wide range of subjects of interest to the homemaker, teaching her how to sew, to cook, and other classes, bringing her experts in many fields including child care, education, medicine, the program was highly entertaining, varied and informative. The busy homemaker hasn't time to sit in front of her television in the morning to be entertained, but she will take time out for a program that will help her to do a better job as a homemaker.

Recently when we were in New York, we talked to Hugh Downs, one of the stars of the show, and he told us that they had received many grateful and complimentary letters from viewers.

If you feel as we do and would like to see the program telecast again, speak up. Interested and intelligent letters are very important because broadcasting companies are anxious to know what the viewers want. Address "Home," c/o National Broadcasting Company, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York.

Children's Corner

"Learning French Is Fun" is the name of a program in beginning French for children. And so it can be fun as our nine and ten-year-old critics learned as they watched the "live" show featuring Madame Yvonne Bardet over KQED (Thursdays, 6 p.m.). Intrigued with the idea of speaking another language, the youngsters repeated the words and sentences after the teacher easily and accurately. Such a program certainly stimulates children's interest in other languages. For adults, the show could be an opportunity to review the French they studied in school. After our "sad" attempts to recall our college French during a recent trip to Europe, we certainly wished we had watched the program before we left.

News Briefs

Celebrating the 1000th broadcast recently, "Point of Law" is a local program which started three years ago over KCBS at 5:55 p.m., and is now a daily feature on 30 radio stations with an estimated audience of 6 million listeners.

NBC plans to telecast a record total of at least 100 special programs during 1957-58 season, according to a recent announcement by President Robert W. Sarnoff.

Navy Seeks Top Hi School Grads For Air Cadets

A tremendous opportunity awaits young men who yearn to fly the high performance jet aircraft of the U. S. Navy, according to Chief Leo Polhemus, man in charge of the recruiting office, 6705 Mission street.

These individuals must meet the high qualification standards and successfully complete one of the toughest courses of flight training in the world today. In addition to the other opportunities offered high school graduates, the Navy now offers to those who can meet the standards an opportunity to obtain flight training in the NavCad program. Because of the large expense (approximately $100,000) involved in training an individual to become a naval aviator, only top quality, highly motivated young men will be accepted for this program.

NavCads receive training in general Navy, aviation ground, and flight training subjects. They receive specialized training in one of the several different types of aircraft: carrier based aircraft, land planes, seaplanes, or helicopters. Currently, NavCads are commissioned ensigns, USNR, and designated naval aviators on about the 14th month after commencement of flight training. The remaining period of about four months of flight training is in officer status, for a total of about 18 months of flight training.

NavCads, while in training will receive pay of $111.15 per month and, while in flying status an additional $50 per month flight pay. After commissioning, they are paid the pay and allowances of their rank and length of service, including aviation pay.

For more information, phone Polhemus at PL 6-3740.

Reservist Bragg Sails For Seattle

William W. Bragg, chief hospitalman, U.S. Navy Reserve, of 1148 Hanover street, is aboard the destroyer escort USS Grady on a two-week's summer cruise to Seattle.

Forty-five reservists from Northern California and Utah comprise the Grady's "temporary" crew. They reported to the ship at Treasure Island.

DC Man In Navy's Invasion Of Seattle

Wesley W. Webb, storekeeper third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert D. Webb of 701 Templeton avenue, aboard the escort vessel USS George will visit Seattle August 9-12, during the annual Sea Fair.

Twenty-two U. S. Navy ships will visit the Northwestern port for the event and will be open to the public during their stay.

The Sea Fair is a 10-day pageant of spectator and participation entertainment designed to point out the Pudget Sound area as one of the boating capitals of the world.

Maritime features will include a sailboat regatta, salmon fishing derbies, crew and outboard races, water-ski shows, a decorated yacht parade and the U. S. championship race for unlimited hydroplane speedboats on Lake Washington.

CSM Schedules August Signups

On Monday, August 19, counselors at the College of San Mateo will begin an intensive two week period of counseling and registration for both new and returning students.

College officials announced that some appointments may still be made by phoning the College Office of Student Personnel, DI 2-1421. Students registering by this means will have a one-half hour appointment with a counselor and may complete their registration for school which opens Tuesday, September 10. Such appointments are available both during the day and evening hours.

Students unable to register during this time must register on Thursday and Friday, September 5 and 6.

Brisbane Library Activity 'Humming'

Major activity is in the juvenile department, stimulated by the reading club.

Members of the summer reading club are: Linda Spencer, Linda Andrews, Cheryl Andrews, Charles Mar, Bill Plank, Carolyn Rennie, Sandy Latham, Butch Martin, Janet Rigler, Barbara Werling, Shirley Plank, Patricia Halryn, David Shaffer, Sharon Gonzalez, Linda Lipton, Janet Paulson, Ross Rigler, Judy Lipton, Francis Suversen, Cherrye Rewak, Marie Valdez, Linda Gryversim, Christine Blanchard, Frankie Kosik, Suzanne Fischera, Jo Ann Long and Nancy Smith.

SM County Fair Has Spread On 'United Crusade'

What was good enough for grandma doesn't fill the bill today—at least not as concerns contributions for community welfare. This is the theme of the United Crusade booth at the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta.

The glance backward into the hotel lobby on the Peninsula at the turn of the century was made possible by decor and equipment of suitable vintage loaned to the United Crusade by the Swinging Door on 25th Avenue in San Mateo. These include an ornate cash register made in 1900; a Stereoscopic View Machine showing dramatic three dimensional shots of the San Francisco Earthquake of 1906; a piano organ with mandolin combination, 1905 and a violin virtuoso created in 1920.

As a gesture of support to the United Crusade, Oddstad Homes of Redwood City provided the building materials and the Carpenters Union No. 162 of the San Mateo Building Trades Council donated the labor.

The section of the booth depicting "today" explains the functions of the 25 health, welfare and social agencies supported by the United Crusade.

Estimated population figures for the county as far into "tomorrow" as 1990 drew the obvious conclusion: as the county grows so must the United Crusade.

The booth is being manned during Fair Week by volunteers from the agencies which are members of the United Crusade.

Two Colma Scouts Attend Summer Camp

Richard Landess and David Peebles, Colma Troop 129, were among more than 1200 San Mateo County Scouts attending summer camp last month, according to Earl F. Schmidt Jr., scout council executive.

The Colmans went to Camp Pomponio, one of the three San Mateo County summer sites.

Jeff, Westmoor Gridmen Slate 10 Home Games

Sports fans will get plenty of football in Daly City this fall as no less than 10 games are scheduled here, THE RECORD learned today.

Jefferson High's Indians, tutored by Joe McGrath, will play six home games, plus their first varsity clash with Westmoor at the new school.

Pete Matisi's Westmoor eleven, making its debut in Peninsula League action, has four home games.

Double sessions last fall placed the Jeff varsity on an unfair road schedule. The Indians played only one game—against South City—before the home folks.

The Indians and Rams will play but one night game each —against arch-rival South San Francisco .

The schedules:

September 27	*Encinal
October 4	*San Mateo
October 11	Westmoor
October 18	Hillsdale
October 25	*Serra
November 1	*Capuchino

275 Local Kids Take Beach Trip

An all-day outing at San Francisco's Playland was enjoyed last week by approximately 275 local youngsters, thanks to the city recreation department.

Highlight of the day was roller skating. The youngsters also tried the concessions and toured the Cliff House area.

Jefferson Elementary school district provided bus transportation. Some children went by municipal buses, while a few rode in family cars.

DC Drug, Milano Battle For Flag

Race for the pennant in the Junior Baseball League at Marchbanks park on Sundays has narrowed down to a fight between Daly City Drugs and Milano Inn.

The Drug legions trounced St. Gabriel's last week, 16-2, for their third win without a loss.

In the second game, Milano Inn blanked the winless Coastside Lions, 6-0.

SALMON

The Kokanee salmon, which is normally a bright silvery color, turns red and black during its spawning season, reports the National Automobile Club.

Jefferson Pool Hosts All-City Swimming Meet

Signups are being urged this week for the city-wide swimming championships at Jefferson High pool, Saturday, August 17.

According to Dee Van Nest, city parks and recreation director, the big meet will be conducted from 10 to noon. Events will include individual races, relays and diving for all age groups.

Children should register with their playground leaders.

Playgrounds Set Open House Fetes Throughout City

Throughout next week, August 12 to 16, Daly City department of parks and recreation will hold "open house" programs at all local playgrounds.

Parents are invited to witness the results of the summer recreation program. All sections of the city will be covered by the open house schedule.

The programs will include arts and crafts, hobby exhibits, demonstrations, and variety shows. Children interested in auditioning for the latter activity should contact their playground leaders or phone DE 3-6165.

Open house schedule:

Tuesday, August 13, 7 p.m., Westlake Park and Olympia at Westlake park.

Wednesday, August 14, 7 p.m., Garden Village and Ben Franklin at Ben Franklin school.

Thursday, August 15, 7 p.m., Westlake school; 2 p.m., War Memorial, Marchbanks park and Edgewood at War Memorial building; 2 p.m., Colma school and Jefferson at Colma school.

Friday, August 16, 1:30 p.m., Crocker, Lincoln and Frankfort at Crocker school.

SANDLOT SKIPPER HAS RIGHT IDEA

Small wonder the Daly City sandlotters have such a sparkling record — only three losses in their last 35 games.

Skipper Tom Bournellis usually treats his players after each contest. Following Saturday's win, Bournellis bought each lad two hamburgers and a milkshake.

That's the kind of a sponsor to have. And it costs money to back a sandlot ball club.

REDUCES FATIGUE, TOO

Keeping the eyes focused on the right edge of the road when passing another car at night not only reduces the effects of the glare but also is a considerable factor in diminishing fatigue, points out the National Automobile Club. A long night drive will be much less tiring if the eyes are shown this much consideration.

RECREATION REPORT

War Memorial

Many "thank you's" to Mrs. Senkir, Mrs. Calegari, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Henke for their help at the skating party. They supplied transportation to Playland for the 27 youngsters from War Memorial.

After skating, the children toured Playland. The monkey race seemed to be Sheila Costa's lucky game. She won a humpty-dumpty doll and a dog statue.

Representing War Memorial in All-City Day will be: Danny Craig, checkers, age 12; and James Kearney, paddlepool, 9. Following tournaments have not been completed: ping pong, free throws, volleyball serve for accuracy, football, accuracy throw, and softball accuracy throw.

Vehicle day found only three entrants participating at Marchbanks Park from War Memorial. Danny and Marty Craig, and Barry Morgan won a total of nine places. Marty won the best decorated bike contest, while Danny won the paper throw for accuracy with 48 of 50 possible points. Barry took second place with 30.

The Community Center clowns softball team eked out a 7-6 victory over previously unbeaten Edgewood playground. This win gives the CLOWNS undisputed first place with one more game to go. A win over Marchbanks makes the CLOWNS the American League choice for the World Series. Fine defensive work by catcher Mike Kennedy helped pull the Clowns out of the hole many times. Hitting star was Mike Wills, with 3 for 3, including two doubles. Bill Caster tripled—longest blow of the day.

Crocker's softball team gained its first league victory by defeating Marchbanks, 9-6, in a seven-inning thriller.

Thirty-five children participated in the talent auditions here. Children interested in the Variety Show are asked to come in each Monday at 11 o'clock, or call Mrs. Irvine, DE 3-6165.

Tuesday's main attraction was three-year-old Danny McKean, wizard of the tumbling mat, thanks to Coach Marv Comstock's excellent coaching.

Last Friday, Crocker's softballers turned back a strong Jefferson playground nine, 11-10, in nine innings.

Frankfort Park

Big event was "anything on wheels" day. This children put on a most colorful parade. The mothers also entered bikes and rode them in the mothers' race.

Westlake Park

Tuesday evening, August 12, at 7 p.m., Westlake Park and Olympia playground will jointly hold open house. Parents are invited to see what their children have accomplished this summer. Program will consist of exhibits, a talent show, and demonstrations of boxing, tumbling, and folk dancing. Site will be Westlake Park.

Westlake Park journeyed to Colma Playground to test their prowess on the diamond. The "A" squad, consisting of Steve Funai, Dan O'Connor, Marty and Mike Seelig, Peter Pollat, Lee Bassin, Carl Steigerwald, Mike Tarens, Ed Smith, Ed Koplowitz, and John Sciascia proved too much for Colma. Westlake triumphed, 6-1, The "B" team won, 9-7. The "A" team is in first place with a 2-0 record, while the "B" team holds second place.

Michael Keelen has been picked "Personality of the Week." Mike is 10 and attends the fifth grade at Westlake school. He is a member of the softball team and participates in all activities. His best foot is present. He displays good sportsmanship, friendliness, and exceptional behavior.

Edgewood Park

We now have tetherball champs. In the 10-years-and-under finals, Bonnie Melton beat Tina Enberg, and Mike Steele won over Ronnie Starke, In the 11-12 bracket, Judy Reed beat Janet Pope, and Frank Sears beat Denise Murray. The tournament ended with Frank Vlahovich beating Victor Kulik to be champ of the 13-14 division.

Vehicle day was enjoyed by entrants 4 to 14 years of age. With the aid of judges Mrs. Jubeault, Mrs. Pope and Mrs. Enberg, everything went off smoothly. Scooter race was won by Susan Madonich, followed by Gordon Steele, and the tricycle race was won by Larry Belfrag, followed by Bobbie Steele. Kathy Albee won the skate race. DC Drug Baseballers Explode For Two More Landslide Wins

The amazing Daly City Drug baseballers continued to menace everything in sight last weekend, hammering Sports Center Bowl, 13-4, and bombing St. Gabriel's, 16-2.

Billy Ludwigsen conquered the Sports Center nine Saturday via a six-hitter as the locals opened second half of play in the SF Rec D League. Terry Christman stopped the Gabes "cold" with a five-hit mound job Sunday. This put the Druggists atop the DC Jr. League with a 4-0 record.

Ludwigsen was bothered Saturday by a whipping wind—the roughest in many a season here. Christman was the plate hero, blasting a homer and driving in four mates. Georgie Claus, Bill Hynes, Billy Hix and Barry Krohn each hit safely twice and drove in runs.

Everyone except boss Tom Bournellis scored in the St. Gabriel's romp. Christman did most of the damage with three for five and three runs driven in.

Big frame was the third when the DC boys exploded for eight runs on five hits and three walks.

Four Gael pitchers tried to stop the barrage.

The Drug team meets Rolph AC this Saturday at Rolph diamond, starting at 10:30 o'clock. Milano Inn is the foe Sunday in another engagament at Marchbanks park, 11 in the morning.

Humidity 'Kills' Art Linhares In National Tourney

"Beat by the heat."

This regretful comment belonged to Daly City's Art Linhares, the friendly policeman, on his return last week from a fourth appearance in the National Public Links golf tourney.

Art, for the first time in his career, failed to finish in the qualifying round of the Hershey, Pennsylvania, affair.

"I weathered the first nine holes before the humidity (about 90 percent) got me,' he moaned. "The course was tough, but when it's so darn hot, it kills you."

Linhares praised the men who reached the finals and the Eastern hospitality. But the fog "looked mighty good" when he descended from the skies at International Airport.

WHO SAID THE RAMS TRIPPED THE TRIBE?

To end the tumult and shouting, THE RECORD herewith corrects a "terrible" error in last week's account of the Jefferson - Westmoor basketball game. The Indian 30's won, 39-34, and not the young Rams. Victory left the Jeff lightweights with a 3-2 league mark, good enough for a second place tie. Sorry for the mistake. But with both high schools located here, the miscue was a family matter. Like the Hatfields and McCoys, that is!

Brisbane Gun Club Trap Shoot Sunday

Brisbane Rod & Gun club will hold their regular monthly trap and rifle shoot at the club range Sunday.

Hams and bacon will be offered as prizes.

Public is invited to the event, which will start at 11 a.m.

The range can be reached by driving east off Coast Highway at Princeton Airport administration building.

BYA MIDGETS NAB PENNANT WITH 6-0 MARK

Bruce Hix hurled Broadmoor Youth Association's Midgets to the Junior Managers League pennant Saturday by fastballing his way to a 6-3 win over Tufo Jewelers at Upper Noe park.

Victory gave the BYAers a 6-0 league record. The locals this Saturday begin play in a new loop.

The pennant clincher was decided in the late innings after BYA trailed 3-0 at the end of four.

Setback was tough for hurler George Alvarez. He fanned 12 and walked but one. Hix whiffed eight and issued four bases on balls.

Big blow of the game was Alan Stoller's long triple. Hix, Jimmy Fisher, John Vocke and Dan Dempsey stroked singles.

Jerry Ward was tops. He chalked up an unassisted double play and went two for four at bat.

In DC League play Sunday, the BYA kids were toppled by South Sunset, 7-3. The Victors led in basehits, 11-7. Defeat was BYA's first in a string of 14 games.

Vocke, A. Stoller and Skinner got two hits apiece in Sunday's downfall. Bennett was charged with the hill loss, with Stuckey notching the win.

Bad Pitch Fells Youth, 11, Here

James Fisher, 11-year-old Colma youth, required emergency treatment Sunday afternoon when he was felled by a pitch in a baseball game at Westlake park.

Despite a protective plastic helmet, young Fisher was cut on the right ear lobe. He was released from Junipero Serra hospital a few minutes later.

The "beaning" victim lives at 751 Thornhill drive.

Ralph's Conquer Druggists For Softball Crown

Ralph's Cleaners rallied early and went on to rap Daly City Drugs, 9-4, last week to capture the Twilight Softball League championship.

The champs opened loop playoffs Wednesday night against the Drugs, with Westlake Lodge and Shannon Hardware meeting in the second game.

If a team other than Ralph's wins the playoffs, the cleaning corps will face that squad in a two-of-three series for the title.
